

all iterative procedures are M -estimators, so a single step is (in the limit of samples $N \rightarrow \infty$), under some regularity conditions, asymptotically normal, compare asymptotic variances